Subject: It's Me... Gina, in case you were wondering... **grin**

Just touching base and sending you this message so you have my address. I would love to hang out with you when you're able/willing to make the time. In the meantime I'm surfing the net for my next potential victim... um, I meant to say employer... ☺

Thank you, Tony, for being a solid person with strong values and morals and for always listening when I needed to vent. I'm looking forward to spending some personal time with you and getting to know you better.

In the interim, take good care and always smile cuz it makes people wonder what the fuck you're up to... ☺

Gina
