Subject: Happy Mother's Day

Yeah, I know... 2 days late... I tried to send you an email at home on Sunday but it got kicked back for some reason saying my address was blocked/rejected... Did you guys block me?? *wink

I hope you had a pleasant Mother's Day... I had a difficult day and didn't make contact with many people. I was not in the right frame of mind to be visiting people or talking on the phone. Sorry if you felt ignored or forgotten about cuz you definitely were not.. .I was actually sparing you.. *grin

Jenna and I are prepared to help you and Dad move into your new digs this weekend. I'm sure we'll talk before then. If not, I'll see you this Sunday.

Luv,

Gina
