Subject: thoughts of my heart 4 u....my expressions of endearment

On my bed during the night , comes this thoughts of my heart, my expressions of endearment to the one whom my heart craves, cares for , loves & cherishes.....

Dearest Gina

In a perfect world, the like of which we have not known before, i know we will never , to face that world alone.....we can have it all in life, we could recreate our roles in life & love,; while i may not be all that brave or strong or smart, inside my sacred heart , i know, that love will always find a way, anywhere we both go, we will always be home & @ ease with each other, so far we are there together , as dark turns into day( ever constant), this will come true , now that i have found U, love will lead us on & find a way in our hearts.

I was so afraid initially on love, failed to realise that Love is never cruel & so it never dies.....As i look @ your pix now cherie....i see a perfect world shining through your eyes; if only the whole world could see the happiness i have found & feel in U!

Cherie, just like the sun lightens up the earth, the thought of u have come to brighten up my life...U are the only one i ever see in my dream with a smile that is so bright. Just yesterday in my sleep, u came around my way, u changed my whole scenery with your astonishing handsomeness...U simply make see an ordinary thing as a supernatural being, u are brighter than the sun,the moon, i could only love just the way u are.

Out of a million, u stand out as the astounding one...i look into your pix & i see paradise recreated in U. U have succeeded in convicting my soul cos everyday i want u more & more, i cant @ this time deny the feeling i feel deep inside of me 4 U...No one can ever take that place now in my heart except U, no one can fill the space in my heart except u; u are one thought i cant erase; U are one xter that makes me smile ; that makes me flow like a boat upon river Nile.

I know cherie that the path of love is never smooth, but together, we can learn all the lessons of love, grow & mature together . As we go through this journey of love, there would be so many things that we just wouldnt/dont understand, but the only thing i will want u to know is that things dont always go the way we plan....But U will see everyday that will merely come our way, when it seems all our dreams come & done with, U will still see me stand by your side , filled with hope & with joy, we are more than we are, we are 2 hearts in love.

If this is so much we must be in love, we can still be ourselves. We can still trust in our hearts for something great out of this.

Even those who had tread this path b4 us know the forces will go on for those who have deep commitment to success of love & for us , our journey has onluy begun, there would be tears of pain & tears of joy, one thing nothing can destroy , it is our love, deep inside we are one.yes cherie, we are one , u & I, we are like the endless sky, two hearts in love under the sun., all the wisdom to succeed, all the courage to forge ahead in this relationship will become ours just when we see that wqe are 2 hearts that beat as one.

*Hey babydoll... In order for me to get an emergency passport "for business travel", I need a letter from my "employer" with the information below... I can get an expedited passport (within 1 day) if I have all the information I need, such as this letter from you... I've already filled out the passport application, gathered all relevant paperwork, have the app printed and ready to take to the post office monday. If you would use your letterhead, write me a letter, email it to me and I'll sign it on your behalf (yes, I'll forge your signature *grin) so I can get this processed... If you dont want me to forge your signature, you will need to write the letter, print it off, and mail it to me so I can proceed.*

This is all unfolding so quickly... I'm in a state of shock about how quickly the wind blows through my life and shakes it up... and all i can do is bless the great energy called Life for wisking you into my life, and sweeping me off my feet (literally... *grin)

I had to laugh out loud during my drive home today thinking about all the dreams that have come true through my relationship with you... One dream in particular (which actually has been a sleeptime dream of mine since young childhood) is my desire to fly... I have always had a dream about me swinging on a swingset to its highest forward point, gathering momentum each time, and eventually jumping out of my seat while at the most forward/highest point and fly through the air... My dreams have taken me to many places but I have yet to realize them in my consciousness. Toward the end in my dreams, I always found it difficult to direct myself away from the trees... My dreams always ended right before I flew into the tree that I was heading toward... However, I haven't had this dream in many years now...

I was driving in my car today thinking about why I enjoy driving so much... I surmised that because while in our spiritual form we are able to transcend space and time with a simple thought, the only way to accomplish that in humanity is through physical speed... The faster I go in my car, the more alive I feel... The ultimate speed I have yet felt is the speed and feeling of gravity which occurs when a plane is taxiing to takeoff... I have only felt this two times in my life, once to florida and once returning home... But the feeling gave me such an adrenaline rush that I fear I will become permanently intoxicated by its power... Thus my excitement about flying with you... That particular dream has now manifested in my reality... as well as the dream to do it with you... Thank you...

See ya soon, luv...
