 Subject: my dream of u

I see myself, from where I cower,below the translucent surface.....Wavering past, overhead, on the other side,where warmth dwells.....Arms, too cumbersome to push through; the facade unyielding.

You're there; I taste you there,when I close my eyes.Velvet lips glance briefly against skin,breath briefly rests there.Your teeth cleave effortlessly through my heart,bones crackling into shards.

My deliverance is within your eyes,my demise close at hand.Brutally heaved before you,hiding broken promises behind my back.I wait for the release of your embrace, surrendering to devour and be devoured.

Lungs scorched, gasping for your gaze, bursting once found....Stench and debris slip silently away.Leaving a flowing sheath,cossetting vulnerable skin, which crumbles like ash becoming one with yours.

Assimilate into a new being, celebrating with hubris sloughing tainted dreams and cancers....Our eyes fill with fire;Our shared soul reborn, dancing until I startle awake, below the surface.

I hope to see you soon, as I do in my dreams.

I don't want nothing from you and I never have. I just want us to be together soon . You already know how deep my feeling is for you. And I want you to believe me that everything I say is true. I wanna be with you for the days to end. And I'm not gonna finish cause to me it is always gonna just begin.

There will be nothing that can stop us in our heart unless we lose the will in our hearts. And nothing that I know can truly tear us apart. I wouldn't care if the world was to end. You're one thing I will care about ,one experience i would love to pass through. I think about you night and day.

But what I want is this as I say. I cherish you more than a rainy night. Just d thought of being with you tears away all the frights. You take care of me more than anyone ever could. And that's all it takes and that's all it should. To care 4 someone in the way that we do, Is like heaven on earth, just more cruel. I would like to say that we are perfect in a way. But we already know perfect is just a word that we say.Maybe there's a way that I could prove that I truly care about you.

I have nothing without you, and everything with you. But I cant use just words, because there are no more to tell you how much I am true.

*God really must have loved people in love or he wouldn't have made so many.
Those who claim it's a mental disease are those who have never been loved by any.
Love is stronger than life itself, And jealousy more cruel than the grave.
Men and women have loved one another, Since they spent their nights in a cave,since time immemoria.
So cherie, no matter what games we play ,we like the flowers in the fields, shed our shields,
To be warmed by the sun. We live our lives the best way we can Till death catches us on the run. The only good thing is , life has been spent loving and being loved, d very best thing life could give us.
I pray love and life treat as us fairly.*
