Hello Gina,

Since I last emailed you, I have come to find out that the $3,250.00 Postal Money Orders that Kenny Mills sent me turn out to be fake. I now owe the bank the money and I am now under investigation for this. I talked to my lawyer about this and he said that since the postal money orders were fake that this is now considered to be a Federal Crime and that I could possibly end up going to prison over this. My lawyer wants me to go to the Attorney General's Office with this, which they are already sending me paperwork to fill out in this matter. I would appreciate it if you could email me any information relevent to this matter.

Sincerely,
Kristen

>Hello Kristen, and thank you for forwarding to me the email you recently
