Marc,

No need to apologize for rambling as I'm sure to level the playing field once we really get going with communications... ☺ I am home right now for my lunch hour and need to leave in 5-10 min to return to work but wanted to send this along to say hello and thank you very much for the most gentlemanly and non-perverted contact... I see your email address is part of the UMaine Extension network... I work for state govt. with an @maine.gov email so I will send you another email from my work address so we can stay in touch during the day... I am saddled with bankers' hours m – f 8a – 5p... such a struggle... ☺ but if you use Yahoo at all you can find me there during after-work hours... that Yahoo name would be MortalSage

If you would be so kind as to send me a face picture so I can at least know who I am speaking with as I write my messages... I believe my pic was shown on my CL ad, so its your turn to level the playing field... ☺

I have much to say but not the time at present, so, until then,

Gina ☺

Are you still interested the occasional get-together for interesting and intelligent conversation? Just to get this out first and foremost, I am not responding in search for NSA sex, a one night stand, or some other nefarious activity. I am interested in good company to share an occasional evening or weekend.

I enjoy a wide variety of cuisines, with a leaning towards Indian, though I do enjoy a nice lentil burger with fries as well. I am vegetarian which, for the most part does not cause too much heartache while searching for a place to eat. I do not care if you eat meat, and I do not care if you eat it in my presence. One of my pet peeves is when acquaintances apologize for eating meat while we are dining together. Hey, I don't apologize for eating tofu, you shouldn't feel the need to apologize for eating a steak.

I am a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat. I love folk music, contemporary singer/songwriter stuff like Patty Griffin, Ellis Paul, Greg Brown, etc.. Since I lived in England in the 70's, I also love classic rock groups like Genesis (with Peter Gabriel), Yes, and others. I also enjoy jazz from Louis Armstrong to Miles Davis to Wynton Marsalis (though I am not an aficionado). Notice they are all trumpet players? I am an avid runner and fantasize about winning the Boston Marathon while on a long training run. Bill Bryson is one of my favorite authors for light reading. I don't really have another favorite author; I haven't really had much time for heavy reading lately.

My favorite movies list is long, but it includes The President's Analyst, Guess Who's Coming to Dinner (the original, of course), A Raisin in the Sun, Monty Python and the Holy Grail, Midnight Cowboy, and Dr. Strangelove among many, many others. I do not watch TV except for the occasional baseball game and maybe The Simpsons (latent adolescence).

What else can I tell you? I was born in Baltimore, lived a while in Japan and England (my father was a spy), and have been living in Maine for about 15 years now. I worked for a while as a Park Ranger at Acadia National Park leading visitors on mountain hikes and boat cruises. Washington County is one of my most favorite places in Maine.

Sorry for rambling.

Marc
