Hi Shellie! I wanted you to know that our friends helped me to pay my rent these last 2 weeks and I was able to pay the rent for the rest of this month with my disability check this morning so my month of December will be without worrying about eviction.

I wanted to send you this message and tell you how much I appreciate your trying to help me and I believe the universe prevented you from helping me because there is someone else (perhaps your self) who needs it more than I did ...

Your thoughts, support and love mean more than any amount of money you could offer and I appreciate your willingness to try.

A friend of ours sent me 50,000 dinar so when the RV happens I will be in good shape. If you are able to buy some dinar, perhaps that is what you should do with the $50 you offered to me.

My friends use this website <http://www.dinartrade.com>

Thank you again. I love you.

Gina
