Hi Gina, Good to hear from you. We have asked people to more or less pack a picnic with a blanket or lawn chairs and bring something to share. We will have two grills available, paper plates, cups, towels, the usual condiments. So far people are bringing the following to share: potato salad, green salad, cole slaw, fruit salad, 7-layer dip, cupcakes, watermelon, chips and pickles. If you wanted to bring brownies or something sweet, that would be wonderful. If it rains, we will cancel.

Thank you for asking if you can bring a friend. I called your dad and he said we are very sorry, but we have about 50 people coming and everyone knows it is just for family. We wanted to invite Jo Anne, Warren and Aunt Helen, but weren't able to. Feel free to bring your girlfriend out any other time. We would be happy to meet her. I hope you understand.

Love, Raye
