Subject: RE: responses on board

---

Hi Gina,

I saw your response on the hypersexuality/promiscuity thread, and was a little surprised, because people on that board *do* understand that it goes hand-in-hand with bipolar disorder, so to speak.

On my message board at Moodgarden, I actually created an entire "Mature forum" to discuss hypersexuality openly, mainly because a lot of people do not openly discuss it on a more public board.

I do not know if you joined the MG forum or not, but you write very well, and are knowledgeable (plus put together a great mood chart!), so I thought I would write and get to know you better.

Take care.
