Hey Scott. Was hoping to catch you at the plant today but Heather said you came up yesterday. I wanted to pick your brain about the impressions I made on you and Shane during the hiring process. I plan to use the information to tweak any future interviews I may get. What I'm looking for is:

1. What did you see for strengths and/or weaknesses in my resume. How would you improve upon it?
2. What was your overall impression of my interviewing skills.
3. Where can I improve during the interview?
4. Did my follow-up thank you letter, restating my impressions of the job, and qualifications/suitability for the job, make any difference in your decision to hire me?
5. Finally, is there anything else you can tell me about my interviewing skills that I may need to improve upon?

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to get my feet wet again after being on dry land for so long. It definitely was a learning experience.

Take care,

Gina Turcotte
